Nancy Toomey Fine Art

nancytoomeyfineart Nancy Toomey Fine Art's current Gilles Teboul exhibition "Gravity" is featured in Wall Street International Magazine.

Excerpt: "The paintings reach their definitive form upon conception, alleviating gesture and allowing the undercoat to rise to the surface. Any hint of the artist's hand is removed, while the luminosity created seems to be conjured from light itself. Color, in its purest form, distributes itself onto the canvas. His choice of materials creates a visual vocabulary distinctly his own—pale pink is rendered with an undercurrent of deep purple, while midnight blue emerges into spring green." @gillesteboul
